Press Release

"FREEDOM-AN ARTISTIC INTERPRETATION" MARCH 4-25, 2018

The Martin Hicks Gallery at the Belskie Museum of Art & Science, Closter, N.J. proudly presents a juried exhibition of 41 artists from the U.S. and Israel who explore the theme of Freedom-artistic, political, religious and personal in their work. Selection was made not only on artistic merit but on personal statements submitted for each artwork. A wide range of artistic styles are expressed in paintings, drawings, photography and sculpture. This is the 7th exhibition curated by Sheryl Intrator Urman for the Belskie Museum. She was the former Art Chair of the "Partnership2gether Art Program", which was sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Northern New Jersey from 2010-2015. Fred Spinowitz, one of the recipients of the Partnership2gether Art Exchange, has been a committee member for all their exhibitions and is now co-curator of this juried exhibition.
